To Sir or Madam:

It is my belief that the proposed Remedy for the Microsoft Anti-trust violation is insufficient to alleviate the situation. It fails to adequately 'unfetter a market from anticompetitive conduct', terminate the illegal monopoly, deny to the defendant the fruits of its statutory violation, and ensure that there remain no practices likely to result in monopolization in the future' (Court of Appeals ruling, section V.D., p. 99).

Please consider a stronger remedy. Microsoft to date has shown us little to no reason to think it capable of self governance in these areas. Anti-competitive practices continue unabated.

Thank you for your consideration,

Philip R. Auld, Ph.D.
